1. Client requests Vehicle Query (RQ)
2. RQ message sent to message switch
3. Message switch sends request to Nlets, NCIC and In-State vehicle data source
4. Responses trigger additional queries based on data from initial query results
5. Message switch sends new queries based on data from initial query results
6. Data sources respond to message switch
7. Message switch compiles data and returns all information gathered to client